RIDES THE WINNERS OF THE STAKE RACE AND THREE PURSES.

Temaceo Wins the Christmas Handicap-Ray Thompson and Okenite Improve Suddenly-Jockeys Disciplined.

New Orleans, December 25.—The splendid pro gram containing the Christmas Handicap at a mile and a sixteenth, worth $2,340 net to the winner, and a handicap for two-year-olds at six furlongs. as the features, served to bring out the banner attendance of the season at City Park this afternoon. Finishes in all the races were spirited and fully justified the high expectations of the crowd. The adding of Ace High, made it possible for eighteen to start in the principal race, but by declaration time six declined the issue.

In a speculative way there was little to choos between the Ellison entry, consisting of Temaced and Yankee Girl, and Lad of Langden. Carthage also came in for good support, as did Alma Dufour. The dozen contestors were dispatched to an excellent start, with Sally Preston at once essaying the role of pacemaker. This filly led the others, ning under easy restraint, and at the head of the stretch appeared like the probable winner. tired, however, in the stretch run and Temaceo, under an excellent ride, gained steadily, getting up in the closing stride to win. With a little stronger riding Sally Preston would have won. The finish of Plantland and Old Honesty behind the first two exciting, they putting up a spirited struggle for the small portion of the stakes. Plantland appeared to be in close quarters through the last furlong, for which Minder on the Fizer representa-tive, seemed to hold jockey Lee to blame, and during the final drive Minder devoted, as much time to making his whip land on Lee's back as he did it fall on Plantland's flanks. The judges promptly fined Minder $50 for the offense.

condensed history of the Christmas Handicap is as follows:

Year. Winner. A. Wt. Jockey. Val. Time. 1995 Foreigner . . . 4 95 C. Morris . . . $1,505 2:018 1996 Not run this year. 1907 Temaceo ....3 1 1-8 miles in 1905. .3 107 Notter .... 2,340 1:48

The sudden improvement shown by Ray Thompson and Okenite was sharply criticized by close servers. Both these horses ran poorly in their last attempts and trailed almost throughout. Both displayed superior speed today. Ray Thompson especially, as he never left the issue in doubt. The judges issued a ruling later that in future Ray Thompson would be barred from starting here on Okenite's victory will not help Delaby's cause to any noticeable extent and it is probable that he will be kept on the ground for a longer period than his original suspension.

Jockey Notter's riding today was a feature. He piloted four of the six winners and to his skillful guidance was mainly due the victories of Severus Enrique fell far below expectations. The judges are determined to stamp out beligerency among the riders and in addition to imposing a fine on Minder for his passage at whips with Lee, fined G. Swain $25 for striking S. Flynn yes-

Magic and Aules are on the ailing list as a re sult of their mishaps in the hurdle race yesterday. Magic sustained a dislocated stifle and Aules was so severely cut on one of his hind legs that it is thought his racing career is ended.

Among the riders who will leave to ride at the proposed race meeting at Tampa, Fla., are D. Riley, Hufnagel, L. Smith, S. Flynn, Troxler and B. Burton. It is claimed by those who have the Tampa track management in charge, that applications for 300 stalls have been received from various

There was a report going the rounds today that Mose Goldblatt is contemplating shipping his horses to California in the near future. When asked about it he had not fully made up his mind and would

BUTLER NEEDS NO HELP.

Louisville, Ky., December 25 .- James Butler, the merchant who owns the Empire City track at Yonkers, is the Christmas guest of general manager of both tracks at New Orleans and who also occupied that position during the meeting at Yonkers last August . FOUR STABLES THAT PROSPERED | NEW RECORDS FOR TWO-YEAR-OLDS. Earnings of Horses of the Patchogue Stable, F. J. Farrell, A. Belmont and J. W. Colt.

Through acquiring two cracks in Nealon and Charles Edward, the Patchogue Stable arose to prominence this year and is well up in the winning list. But for being unsound, Charles Edward might have proved the best three-year-old of the year. When right his speed was something extraordinary and speed is what wins races. The one period when he was at his best was while the Brighton Beach summer meeting was in progress. It was here that he simply ran away from Ballot, Dr. Gard-ner, Electioneer and Nealon in the Brighton Mile 1:37% and could have wiped out the mile record of 1:37% had he been urged out; took the Seagate Stakes from Dinna Ken at a mile and an eighth in 1:50%, a new record, and, with 126 pounds up, defeated Frank Gill for the Brighton Derby, running the mile and a half in 2:30%, being three consecu tive performances of unequalled merit. So far as money won is concerned, Nealon did better than Charles Edward and was a profitable investment at the $14,000 paid for him. The Belmont cast-off, Don Enrique, and the fleet two-year-old, Running Account, also did well for the stable. Its account of races and money won	is as	TOH	ows:

With the good two-year-old, Jim Gaffney, and the useful older campaigner, Grapple, as his main-stays, Frank J. Farrell's stable earnings of 1907 a big upward advancement from his total of $19,935 in 1906, Jim Gaffney alone winning more than that sum. James B. Brady was also a useful contributor, the Farrell Stable winnings for the year being as follows:

Mr. August Belmont's horses won an aggregat in 1907 slightly inferior to his stable returns of 1906. His total that year was $49,390, while this year it is $48,160. His really good two-year-old, Fair Play, was his main money winner and, if he goes on in the right way, should play an important part in the three-year-old racing of 1908. Next to him came the two-year-old filly, Half Sovereign, which was decidedly unlucky in several races and but for this would have returned much more than the $8,050 she won in the course of the year's racing. Mr. Belmont's older horses ran disappoint-ingly, Okenite doing best, while Blandy and Don

Established by Colonel Bob and Old Timer at Santa Anita Park.

Los Angeles, Cal., December 25 .- Brilliant racing characterized the decision of the splendid card offered the patrons of Santa Anita Park today. The attendance was by far the largest in the history of racing in southern California. Tholl Brothers, the Texas turfmen, were the bright particular stars of the day, winning the Gar-

Handicap with Old Timer, equaling the track record for a mile by winning it in 1:37‡, and also scoring with Old Settler in the second race. The field in the Garvanza Handicap brought nine e best youngsters at the track to the post. Stanley Fay and Magazine were equally well fancied and were supposed to have the race between them, but after Stanley Fay had been raced into exhaustion in the first six furlongs, Old Timer, a comparative outsider in the betting, dashed into the van and in a game and fast finish, outstayed Magazine. The race was worth $1,950 to the winner and the time the fastest on record for a two-year-old.

Colonel Bob's brilliant performance in the fifth race was one of the striking features of the day. He was at his best and showing marvelous speed throughout, ran the six furlongs in 1:113, winning easily. The time equals Roseben's American record made at Belmont Park.
The attendance today was estimated at 10,000 and the small grandstand was not large enough to sent the crowd.

APOLOGUE'S MELBOURNE CUP RACE. Australian Cracks Meet and Beat Each Other -Incidents of Races.

When at Melbourne, Australia, November 11, R. L. Cleland's five-year-old bay horse, Apologue, won the Melbourne Cup, he made a sterling performance. The horse won by a scant length under in 3:271. with Mountain King, winner of the Victoria Derby, second, and Poseidon fifth. Poseidon is four years old, the cup crack of Australia, and carried 143 pounds in the race. He was thoroughly beaten, though. There were nineteen starters Apologue's time was but three-quarters of a secon behind the American record, Judge Denny's 3:264. under 105 pounds at Oakland in February, It has stood because two-mile races are se scarce in this country. Apologue's race was worth about $20,000.

At the same famous Flemington course, before an enormous crowd, Poseidon won the $7,500 Melbourne Stakes at one and one-quarter miles in 2:121, with 126 pounds up. Apologue, 129 pounds, was secon to him. Poseidon won in a canter by two lengths. Apologue, 129 pounds, was second Evans, who rode Apologue in the Melbourne Cup, on his way back to the scales, was swaving in his saddle, while his face was white and drawn with exhaustion. He rode into the inclosure, however, and then, instead of dismounting, slipped to the ground a limp heap.. Earnshaw, the trainer of Apologue, sprang to the jockey's side and lifted him up. The boy was in a fainting condition, but he had not played his part right out yet. He still had to weigh in before the horse could be declared carried to the scales. half sitting on them, half propped up against them with his saddle beside him, he managed to hold out long enough to have the weight checked. was all right, and at the announcement of this the jockey's last ounce of nervous energy deserted him, and he sank to the floor in a dead faint. There was consternation for a minute or two, and nobody knew exactly what had happened. Evans was car ried into the inside room, where Sir Thomas Fitzgerald examined him. He found that the boy tion, and ordered stimulants and rest.

It turned out that Evans had ten and one-half pounds in two days by means of severe Turkish baths.

In that race two horses dead heated for third place, and Apologue was just behind them, but a week before that race he struck a stone while galloping and his foot festered up, so that he had to be rested till within four days of the race. I am more than ever certain that he ought to have won the Caulfield Cup. I think he was a better horse than Poseldon at the weights. He is the first New Zealand bred and owned horse that has won the big race."

Mud Still the Order at Oakland and Results Uncertain-Walter Miller's Bad

Luck Continues.

Oakland, Cal., December 25 .- J. O. Keene's sturdy three-year-old, Clamor, was shipped here from Santa Anita Park and added at the last moment to the Christmas Handicap, the richest stake decided here thus far this season, and, running as the despised and unconsidered second string to his more famous stable companion, Red Leaf, vanquished his opponents in commanding style. The Keene entry, coupled, were favorites in the betting and carried the bulk of the public's money. The race was at the trying distance of one mile and a quarter, over a still more trying track, and at the end of the first mile the pair drew out and won off with Rubric many lengths away.

The result was received with genuine enthusiasm by the 15,000 race-goers present and there was renewed applause forthcoming for Mr. Keene when he appeared and led the winner away.

The tabulated history of the Christmas Handicap is as follows:

Year. Winner. A. Wt. Jockey. Val. Time. 1898*David Tenny. 4 108 H. Martin. $1,140 3:31\frac{1}{2} 1899 No stake this yea 1900†Eddie Jones...5 1901 El R. Shannon.4

After the Christmas Handicap, the most interesting feature of the card developed in the third race in which Harry Mason's Herodotus, a $200 horse, was the successful medium of a "killing" which everybody shared. Mr. Mason had advised his friends east and west to get down on Herodotus the first time he started and it naturally followed that the most extensively tipped horse of the season would be at a short price. The wonder of it all was that David Gideon's cast-off made good under the pilotage he received. Coles. better known as "Sapho," formerly a stable lad in the employ of Billy Lakeland, and as black as the ace of spades, rode Herodotus and gained the luckiest of decisions by the narrowest of margins in the very last stride.

The running of the second race, won by Byronerdale, was marked by the most scandalous reversal of form of the meeting. The winner displayed asounding, but probably legitimate, improvement. The stewards, however, reverted back to his previous defeat and suspended jockey Palms, who rode him on that occasion.

DUCAL COMPLIMENTS TO KEENE.

Apprised by cablegrams of the fact that James R Keene had surpassed his record as winner of the largest sum of money ever achieved by a single stable in one season, the Duke of Portland cabled congratulations to America's most successful turfman and followed that up by a letter to Mr. Keene friends of that gentleman say he highly appreciates. The two representative turfmen met when the American visited England a few years ago and saw his horse, Disguise II., race against Diamond Jubilee and others. The treatment accorded Mr. Keene on that visit by all English turfmen was of such a character as to cement the Jockey Clubs of the respective countries in a strong bond of friendship.

Of late years the Duke of Portland, owner of the world-renowned St. Simon, has not won many classics, but that has not weakened his regard for the turf and its best exponents, and his cablegram and letter to Mr. Keene show that though he may not be able to score as often as he would wish, he is not envious of those who do.

JOCKEY DISCIPLINE IN AUSTRALIA

A rather novel excuse was put forward by the Thompson, for de-Sydney, Australia, jockey, E. clining to take his allotted place at the starting barrier on Good Rose, the winner of the $10,000 event at Ascot. The position of the mare No. 13, but Thompson flatly refused to take up that place when ordered to by the starter and the of the course. This amounted to gross disobedience and when the offense was reported to the stewards after the race had been won by Thompson on Good Rose, the stipendiaries promptly dis qualified the recalcitrant lad for a period of six

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey Vandusen will ride at Oakland during the meeting for Johnson & Dodson, his contract employ ers, besides taking a few outside mounts.

Burleigh has been under the care of a veterinary urgeon for several days since his winning race o last Thursday. He is now reported to be improving.

The Hampshire Downs lambs, which scored heavily as prize winners at the recent Chicago live stock show, were owned by the famous English trainer of race horses, Sam Darling, of Beck hampton. Mr. W. B. Purefoy, the well-known Irish racing man, has many interests in this country, and is due for a visit here within the next ten days. The Purefoy stud, with Lally at its head, is at Greenfields, Tipperary County.

The entries to the two-year-old stakes to be run at Santa Anita Park this winter, were not as large as the management anticipated. E. J. Baldwin made about fifteen nominations, which was the largest number made by any owner.

The noted English sire, Stockwell, came to his death in a curious way. He was twenty-one years old at the time. The old horse fell backward on to his tall, which he broke clean off, and part of it pressed into his stomach, producing great pain and, after two or three days' suffering, the ever-famous son of The Baron was destroyed, his case being found hopeless.

Sombro, from a flatfooted start, took the lead in a dazzling display of speed, but succumbed readily to the winner and was an easy second. Follie Le, away slowly, closed up steadily into a fast going third and is improving. Pajaroita, away poorly, closed a gap and ran a good race. Braggart showed superior early speed, but tired finally.

Winner—B. c, by Sempronius—Satellite II. (trained by F. Hanlon).

Went to post at 1:59. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Severus, well ridden, was in forward contention from the start, but was forced wide in the stretch and had to stand a hard final drive to get up in time to win. Tea Leaf ran a good race and was a dangerous competitor all the way. Inauguration showed superior speed from the start and tired in the stretch, but held on gamely. Dick Rose ran a good race and is a better colt than has been supposed. Lexington Lady, in close quarters most of the way, put up a good performance. Sahado closed a big gap from a poor beginning. Sainesaw was crowded back soon after the start and had scant chance thereafter. Lute Foster tired fast after going three furlongs and can do much better. The winner was entered for $600; no bid. Overweights—Dick Rose, 1 pound; Lexington Lady, 4; Thurbet, 2½; Bosom Friend, 1; Orlandot, 3; Thomas Calhoun, 3.

Winner—Blk, c, by Loiterer—Ethel Gray (tgained by F. Hanlon).

Went to post at 2:28. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Coon, running to his best form, was prominent all the way, saved much ground when turning into the stretch and, aided by Belle Strome bearing out in the last sixteenth, got up in time to win in the last stride. Belle Strome, much the best, ran well and appeared a certain winner in the last furlong when she began bearing out under weak riding and was unlucky to lose. Meadowhreeze showed sudden improvement and came from a long way back in the last quarter from a slow beginning. Fay showed the most early speed, but tired in the last furlong, but ran good race. Handzarra showed speed, but tired in the last quarter and may have been short. Fantastic trailed far back throughout and her race should be thrown out. Orly, from a slow beginning, came with a tremendous rush in the last quarter and favors a longer distance. Bertha E. ran poorly and can do better. Artful Dodger can also do better. The winner was entered for $1.200; no bid.

Overweights—Fay, 1½ pounds; Artful Dodger, 3.

Winner—B. c, by Sorcerer—Succasuma (trained by P. King), Went to post at 2:59. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Ray Thompson, showing a form reversal, was away fast, set a fast pace throughout and had the others soundly beaten after going five furlongs. Dew of Dawn, also showing improvement, followed the winner close up and finished gamely. Miss Delaney had no mishaps, did her best and was not good enough to beat the two leaders today. Woodlane began slowly and closed a gap in the stretch. Tartar Maid ran poorly and can do much better.

Winner—B. c, by Macy—Tec-Ky-Tee (trained by F. Brazier).

Went to post at 3:28. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Temaceo began slowly but, under good riding, gained steadily and saved much ground by staying close to the inner rail all the way, finished with a rush and got up in the last two strides. Sally Preston, away fast and showing the most speed, set the pace fast, hung on well in the closing drive and was unlucky to lose. Plantland, also a forward contender from the start, suffered from slight interference in the stretch run through being in close quarters and would have been closer up with clear sailing. Old Honesty ran a good race for three-quarters and tired in the stretch drive. Carthage was repeatedly cut off and ran fairly well. Ace High showed speed for three-quarters. Lad of Langden suffered much from interference. Tileing ran poorly all the way and tired. Yankee Girl was always a distant trailer.

Went to post at 3:58. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Okenite, under good riding, ran in surprisingly improved form over his last previous effort, was a close contender all the way and, standing the final drive gamely, outstayed Halbard. The latter ran a good race, closed a big gap from a slow beginning and finished fast. Flavigny, also showing improvement, came with her customary rush through the stretch. Gambrinus showed superior early speed and raced Monacodor into defeat in the first half, but tired in the stretch. Oberon ran fairly well. Approbation lacked speed and failed to improve his position when called on sharply. The Clansman fell back after going a good three-quarters. The winner was entered for $2,000; no bid.
